1Co 14:24 But if all prophesy, and some unbeliever or one not instructed comes, he is convicted by all, he is judged by all.

14:31 For you may all prophesy one by one, so that all may learn and all may be comforted.

14:39 So then, brothers, seek to prophesy, and do not forbid to speak in languages.

Rev 19:10 Worship God, for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.

Prophecy/prophesy: to speak by the Spirit of God: (to speak) a specific nugget of wisdom from the Holy Spirit (at a specific time, in a specific setting, to specific people): even though the wisdom spoken may have ongoing relevance, it may be specific in relationship to the timing, setting, & recipients of when & where it may be released, due to the nature of the wisdom, or due to a particular situation that the Spirit of God is referring to!

As an example, just last night as I was driving my wife, Sandy, & I home out a rural highway in the dark of night, I heard the Holy Spirit say, "honk your horn", & it came as a strong impression to which I responded to within a few seconds. Just as I honked my horn for a blast of several seconds, I viewed a large deer on the left side of the road starting to charge in front of our truck. Had he made the run, we probably would've struck him hard. As the horn honked, he turned & ran away from the road!

That prophetic word from the Holy Spirit was for a specific time, to me & my wife specifically, in that particular setting. Because it came from the Holy Spirit, it was prophetic in nature, & contained the direction, wisdom, & protective elements that the Spirit of Prophecy contains. In simple form, the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy. Jesus, by His Spirit, was instructing me how to maintain safety & wellbeing in a moment of time last night! Praise God for the ongoing directive, protective, & selective ministry of the Holy Spirit in, to, & through each Christian!

As another example of the value of prophetic ministry, in this past Sunday night gathering of Great Grace Fellowship, (our sister ministry of Fresh Fire), located in Marietta, Ohio, we had twelve of the people that were in attendance flowing in prophetic ministry, giving words of encouragement, nuggets of wisdom, & quoting Scripture under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit. A couple of these people don't pray in tongues, yet by soaking in the presence of the Lord quietly for a short season during musical worship, they heard from the Lord & then spoke what they heard! Everything that was stated by the attendees aligned with Scripture, glorified Jesus, came from a New Testament perspective, & bore witness with the other attendees listening to what was said! There have been meetings that we've conducted when the Holy Spirit was energizing everyone present to experience the flow of prophetic ministry, & this last Sunday night was similar in flavor! There's much more ministry of the Holy Spirit available to flow, if we'll recognize & yield to His agenda in any given gathering!

Let me share a word of prophecy with you from the Holy Spirit on the subject of prophetic ministry:

"You can prophesy, you can speak a fit word in season to those that you encounter. You can speak of the Lord, speak in the Lord, & by the Spirit of the Lord! For He is in you & with you, & does flow through you. He is always ready to speak through you of His love, His kingdom, & His destiny for you, & for others that you speak into the lives of!"

Prophecy & prophetic ministry is always available because of God within you. He can speak through you at anytime, just as He speaks to you all of the time. All that is necessary for you to flow with the Holy Spirit is to have Him in you, realize He's in you, recognize His promptings, & yield to His leadings that activate His prophetic flow! You can know the flow, go in the flow, grow in the flow, & you certainly can show the flow! You can flow prophetically by yielding to the Holy Spirit of Truth, letting Him speak His wisdom & direction within you, upon you, & through you, as His vessel. As you yield to the designated flow of the Spirit, you'll water seeds of the Gospel of Grace in the lives of people within your realm of influence, you'll be a vessel fitted for the Master's use, & you'll be used by God to minister the Good News of redemption to many people!"
