

Have You checked your ID lately?

“ As you were, so I became, and as I am, so you have become! I became united with you and identified with your sin, failure, rebellion, curse, disease, sickness, oppression, and defeat in life! I did this through the ordeals of Calvary, so that upon My resurrection and in your New-Birth, you’ve become united with Me and are identified with My nature, life, Spirit, righteousness, and perfection! I became sin to make you righteous! I took your unholiness upon Myself to give you My holiness! I was cursed as I hung on the cross and you have been delivered from all curses! I was rejected from the presence of God as I became the scapegoat and the lamb of God, so that you will never be rejected from His presence, His kingdom, or His family! I will never leave you nor forsake you! I became poor and impoverished as I hung upon the tree at Golgotha, in order to set you free from poverty and to cause you to flourish in life! I became united with the diseases and sickness of the spirit, soul, and body of fallen mankind, so that I could impart life, health, healing, and wholeness to all that call upon Me!

I also swallowed spiritual death, as it swallowed My life upon death, so that spiritual death, Hell, and condemnation would have no power over you ever again! In the Great Exchange of Redemption, I became oppressed, in your behalf, with your afflictions, so that you can be exalted in My victory over all affliction, and that you may abide in My salvation forever!

So, I have become your righteousness, holiness, justification, glorification, as well as I am your salvation! In Me you live, move, and have your being, your spiritual being, your total being, your eternal being! I am your life, your victory, your righteousness, your redemption, your success in life! I abide in you, you abide in Me, together forever, and we are more than conquerors! So celebrate life, celebrate redemption, celebrate eternity, and celebrate Me, for I surely do celebrate you!”