

Next time you stand before a mirror, lean close, and look deep into your eyes; you'll see the Holy Spirit looking back at you! Stand quietly & listen to what He says to you; He'll speak words of loving grace to you! He'll affirm you, & will confirm your identity as a son (or daughter) of God, & He'll remind you of what a great vessel of grace for Him you are! You can believe every word He speaks to you!
